

Launch of Society, SBID's official quarterly membership journal

SBID is proud to announce the launch of Society, the official journal of the Society of British Interior Design.

Society is a seasonal publication offering SBID members all the latest news on the activities of the organisation and its members, as well as inspirational design ideas and case studies from all corners of the industry.

The journal, published by Pro Publishing Media & Events Ltd on behalf of ID Publications Ltd, is an ideal platform for members to promote their work and unique services, as well as discover exclusive industry news and insights.

Hard copies of the Summer edition were posted to members and partners in August, with an Autumn issue due to be distributed in October. A digital edition is available to view on the members area of the SBID website, via <http://sbid.org/members-area/society-journal/>, or can be requested by emailing society@propub.co.uk.

Advertising is by request only, with very limited slots. To express interest please email society@propub.co.uk.
