SBID is hosting a quintessentially British afternoon tea at the House of Lords on Friday 30 November to present this year's fifteen SBID International Design Awards winners with their crystal trophies.

In attendance at the exclusive event will be winners and finalists from this year's awards, as well as high-profile judges.

The awards attracted phenomenal entries from both leading and new brands from more than 27 countries, and thirteen winners were previously announced at an event in Milan in September. Two Overall Sector Winners are due to be announced at the House of Lords ceremony.

- ENDS -

Email admin@sbid.org to enquire about tickets to the event, these are limited and priority will be given to awards finalists and SBID members.

About SBID (Society of British Interior Design)

SBID is the standard-bearer organisation of the profession of interior design in Britain and represents members in practice, higher education and industry. The organisation supports the profession locally, nationally and internationally and is part of a global network of 50,000 designers who are professionally accredited.

SBID is the British organisation selected by the 16 nation members of the European Council of Interior Architects and the NCIDQ in the USA and Canada to represent their professional accreditation standards in Britain.
