The SBID Awards is regarded as one of the most prestigious accolades in the interior design industry representing talent and design excellence across all corners of the industry. Each entry undergoes an exclusive two-tier judging process by panels of leading industry experts for both technical content and aesthetic creativity and evaluates essential elements such as brief compliance, budget, health & safety, and fit-for-purpose design.

The judges this year included industry professionals from global design corporations such as Aston Martin, Which?, BBC Radio 2 & 6; National History Museum, The Boeing Company, Google, Sunseeker London and more.

The Awards celebrates its seventh edition at the home of the awards, The Dorchester hotel London, on Friday 27 October 2017, where the winners will be revealed and presented with the much sought – after crystal trophy.

An Overall Winner Award will also be awarded to the project that comes out on the top after an amalgamation of the judge's choices and the public votes have been considered. VIPs and a distinguished panel of sponsors including ABB Group, Kings of Chelsea, BoConcept, Christopher Wray and Sans Souci Glass Deco will be invited to the annual afternoon tea at the House of Lords in October 2017.

All of the winners and finalists will be featured in the Global Interior Design 2017 coffee table book.
