

Official statement from The Society of British & International Design in response to calls to boycott The Dorchester Hotel

The Society of British & International Design (SBID) do not support the law imposed in Brunei against the LGBT community. The SBID has had a long history of hosting the SBID International Design Awards at The Dorchester, one of London's and the World's leading hotels. We can confirm we are reviewing all venues with our lawyers this year and no decision has been finalised.

Notes to Editors

About SBID (Society of British and International Design)

The Society of British and International Design (SBID) is the standard bearer organisation for the interior design profession across the UK, Europe and around the world. It is the professional accrediting body for the interior design industry supporting professional and trading standards of interior designers, architects and manufacturers. They achieve this by guiding and measuring the profession through practice, competence and education; setting the standard for the industry at large to develop future growth.

For more information/images/interviews please contact:

Dominique Stagg, Marketing, PR & Communications Manager
E: pr@sbid.org T: 020 7738 9383 W: www.sbid.org